

One World 'Week' is an opportunity for people from many backgrounds to: come together to focus on issues that affect us worldwide and take action for justice locally and globally.

Doing OWW

In this presentation we use the example of Portsmouth One World Week to show how they have been organising events and involving people in them . . .

What happens in One World Week?

- social events
- inter-faith walks
- fairs with stalls
- displays
- children's activities
- Talks
- Films (see the OWW Film guide 2018)
- workshops
- discussions
- special OWW services
- drama and music
- games
- meals
- quizzes

and more . . .

Who's involved?

Anyone concerned about world issues.

For example, groups involved in Portsmouth have included:

- Portsmouth Interfaith Forum
- Portsmouth University Students Union
- Portsmouth Film Society

Campaigning groups and NGOs such as:

- Portsmouth Fairtrade Forum
- Refugee Action
- Portsmouth Climate Action Network
- Global Justice Now
- Hope not Hate
- South East Hants Peace Council
- Cafod ; Christian Aid; Oxfam
- Greenpeace
- Solent Feminist Network
- Southsea Greenhouse

and others.

One World Week is a national charity*

OWW is not linked to any one faith or political party.

It encourages involvement from all.

You're welcome to join us if you:

- enjoy meeting people from different backgrounds
- are concerned for other people around the world
- want to explore shared concerns such as:

- overcoming poverty
- seeking justice
- building peace
- surviving sustainably.

TOGETHER!

*Charity Number 1107762

What's the point?

- We want people to:
 - meet together and
 - celebrate living in One World with all its diversity and
 - have fun!
- We want to explore issues such as:
 - food and water supplies,
 - climate change,
 - living in peace and harmony with each other and with nature.
- We want people to take action to make a difference.

“We must all take care of each other for us all to be secure”

Dr Mustafa Ali, Secretary General of African Council of Religious Leaders, April 2008

When is it ?

One World Week 2019 is 20 - 27 October

but you can celebrate at any time.

The Theme for 2019 is:

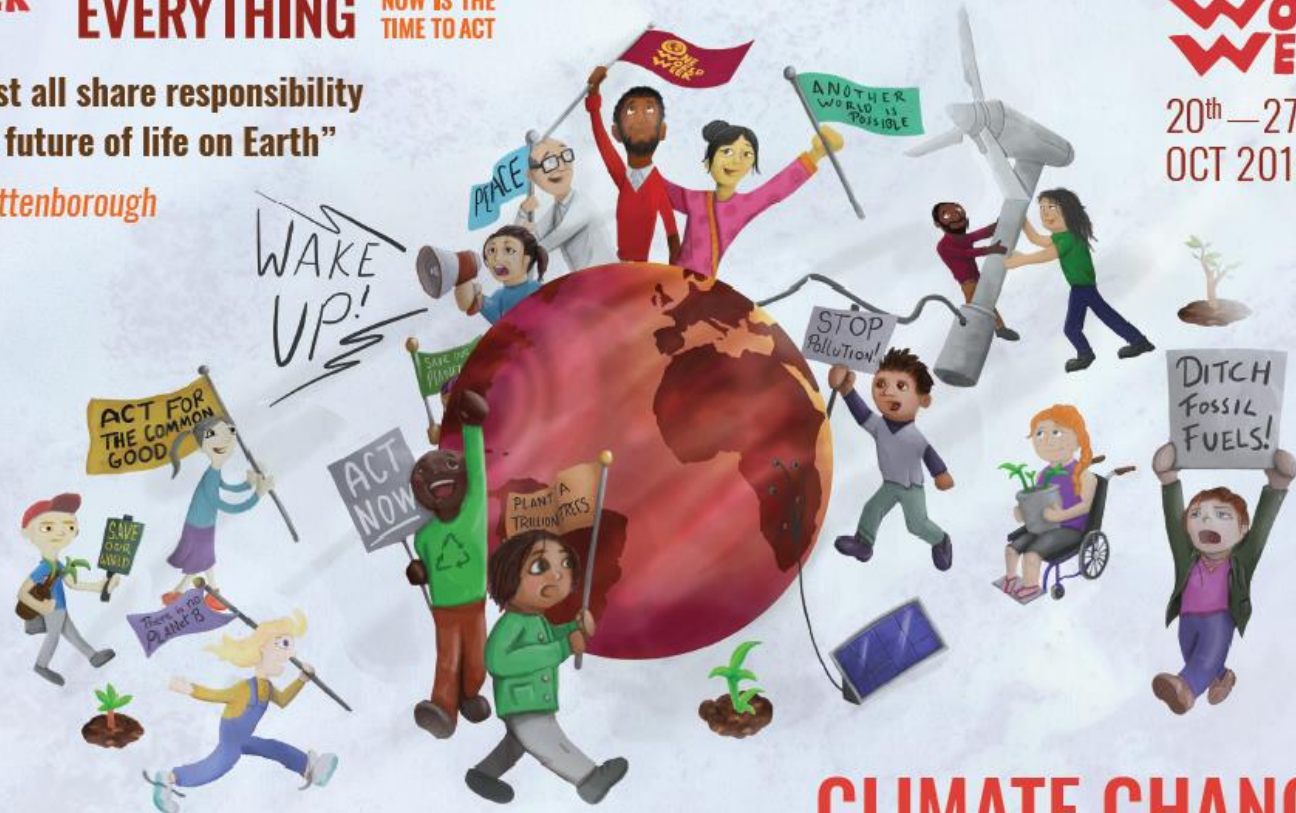

CLIMATE CHANGES EVERYTHING

NOW IS THE TIME TO ACT

“We must all share responsibility for the future of life on Earth”

David Attenborough

20th — 27th
OCT 2019

CLIMATE CHANGES EVERYTHING

NOW IS THE TIME TO ACT

oneworldweek.org | oww@oneworldweek.org | fb.com/oneworldweekuk

Reg Charity No: 1107762 | Reg Company in England & Wales No: 4665250 | Company registered (no office) at 15 Bryngwyn Road, Newport NP20 4JS | Design by Webber Design | Printed on FSC certified paper

How could you get involved?

- You could organise events where you live or work.
- You could get involved in an event near you.
- Use a regular meeting to focus on an aspect of the OWW theme during October

- OWW can help with ideas, materials etc

How to find out more:

Get a copy of OWW's
handbook:

"Piecing together One World"

Have a look at the national website:

www.oneworldweek.org

It has lots of resources to help you put on an event

Locally contact: